realgirls. realneed. realhope.

Girls Nite In International exists to mentor and empower at-risk teen girls and young women to make wise choices as we tackle tough topics like abuse, addiction, self-harm, eating disorders, sex, toxic relationships, self-worth, divorce, anxiety, and bullying. GNI was started in Indianapolis by Jimmelynn Rice, a former public high school teacher, and has quickly exploded into an international nonprofit organization, providing a proven program mentoring real girls with real needs and providing real HOPE!

GNI reaches girls from 17 schools in the Indy Metro area including Brownsburg, Avon, Plainfield, Danville, Pittsboro, North Central, Lawrence, Greenwood, Warren and Wayne Township Schools. GNI has launched affiliate locations in Crawfordsville IN, Southern IN, North Carolina, California, Ohio, Illinois, Tennessee, Florida, Argentina, and Nicaragua meeting in public high schools, community centers, Boys and Girls Clubs, section 8 housing communities, and Indiana Women's Prison.

The GNI program is provided completely FREE of charge to every teen girl... requiring us to do a huge amount of fundraising throughout the year. Please consider partnering with us to help reach more teen girls in your community!
